A Checker Tournament to be Played This Winter—"Open House."

About 150 enjoyed the "open house" at the Association on Saturday evening. Joe Lorraine of New York gave an hour and a half of amusement. Mr. Lorraine who is so popular with association members is an entertainer of rare merit. His program consisted of comic imitations, dialect songs, humorous selections, whistling, and solos on the hand bells and banjo. By special request he told several baseball stories, and incidents from his experience as an umpire in the New England league. This was Mr. Lorraine's first appearance in St. Johnsbury.

It looks as though all the prominent checker players of St. Johnsbury would enroll in the checker tournament to be played in the winter. A. W. Adams, L. F. Miner and G. C. Frye are the tournament committee and will receive the names and entry fee.

The regular schedule of the physical department will begin on October 2d. The class schedule is published in the annual announcement of the Association which is just off the press and can be had at the Association.
